QUITMAN CITY COUNCIL
DRAFT REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

Tuesday, January 7, 2025

6:30PM

VIII. OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

A resident expressed his concern over the noise ordinance. The resident on South Walker Street has made several complaints to the Quitman Police Department of a neighbor playing music very loud in the early morning hours. City Attorney Karla Walker informed the resident to make a formal complaint and provide video or audio of the incident.

A resident on North Barnes Street expressed her concern for vehicles speeding on North Barnes about the safety of the children and those that live in the area.

A complaint on off-road vehicles was made also, Captain Gaskins informed the residents that off-road vehicles can be on the road if they are registered.

Courtney Brown came to the council concerned she had not received a response to the open record request sent to the City of Quitman. City Attorney Karla Walker informed Mrs. Brown she had called Mrs. Brown and left a voicemail requesting more time to gather the information requested. City Clerk Karla Baena reassured and showed Mrs. Brown that the response was sent via email on January 7, 2025. Mrs. Brown also requested the electrical department to replace the bulbs on the streetlights of Battle Street.
